The Jail will begin to consider itself quite as respectable as the Sanctum if editors are to get in the mix-up with jail birds.

Anyhow, editors may take consolation from the fact that there are worse places than a jail. The "lions' den" and the "fiery furnace" have the jail skinned to death.

Says an exchange: "What plea can Judge Purnell put up for his action in putting Editor Josephus Daniels in jail?" On the plea of "self-defence," we have a sneaking notion, because the editor was doing his best to put the Judge "in a hole."

"Seats free. All are welcome," is the announcement made by several of our city churches. In one of them the welcome is so cordial that even the pews become attached to the occupants. This is the unvarnished truth.

"Howard Gould, whose father once cornered Erie Railroad stock, has cornered the duck market," says the New York Globe. If he could get some of the lame ducks out of the political barn-yard his duck trust would serve a good purpose.

The "full dinner pail" will probably not be obstreperous enough in this campaign to make it necessary to have it put under arrest. After a fellow fills his dinner pail at the present increased cost of living, he won't be able to buy clothes enough to go through the streets with the pail.

The decision of that Philadelphia judge who decided that a wife is entitled to her husband's pay envelope is nothing but just to lovely woman. After taking out all the money, no generous man would for an instant refuse to turn over the envelope to his wife. Women's rights must be respected.

The papers are again reminding us of the trying time George Washington had when he crossed the Delaware. In after years when he crossed his wife, however, it is natural to presume that his experience minimized the trouble he had in getting on the other side of the Delaware.

An English scientist is out with the declaration that the earth is kept hot by radium. That scientist is in contempt of Judge Peebles and Judge Purnell who hold down the boards in keeping things from cooling off in North Carolina. Of course no double-barrel contempt is meant herein.

IS STILL IN LIMBO.

Editor Daniels Remains in Custody of U. S. Marshal Pending Habeas Corpus.

LAWYERS IN WASHINGTON.

Make No Announcement of Their Plans. Chief Justice Fuller May Ask Judge Pritchard, of Circuit Court, to Hear the Petition—Notes.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—It is given out to-night that application will be made to-morrow in Washington before Judge Pritchard for a writ of habeas corpus for Editor Daniels, of the News and Observer, who is still in custody of the U. S. marshal here. Chief Justice Fuller was approached by Mr. Daniels' counsel for the writ, but he suggested that as Judge Pritchard entered on his duties as circuit court judge to-day, they had best apply to him. Judge Pritchard, however, only reached Washington to-night and will take up the matter to-morrow. Ex-Governor Jarvis, James H. Pou and R. T. Gray are in Washington as counsel for Mr. Daniels and it is expected that notice will be received to carry the editor in contempt to Washington for the hearing. It is thought possible that a writ may be secured that will cause a review of the whole proceedings, including the Atlantic & North Carolina receivership matter. Editor Daniels is still at the Yarborough Hotel, "cell 28," as he terms his quarters. A deputy marshal is again spending the night with him, but he was left to himself and his editorial work during the day. He and his guard walked out to Mr. Daniels' residence for some time to-night and stopped by the News and Observer office. A great number of flowers, letters and telegrams poured in to him to-day. One especially handsome bouquet was from Mrs. Aycock, wife of the Governor.

H. B. Varner, commissioner of labor, vice president of the National Editorial Association, declared to-night that if the defence of Editor Daniels from the contempt sentence of Judge Purnell develops a need for such action, he will take steps to have the National Editorial Association employ counsel to aid Mr. Daniels' attorneys in their fight before the Supreme Court judges at Washington, for the writ of habeas corpus. He is indignant at the course pursued by Judge Purnell and published denunciatory editorials in the Lexington Dispatch and Salisbury Globe, both of which papers are owned by him.

[By Associated Press.]

WASHINGTON, June 1.—R. T. Gray, of North Carolina, who is interested in the case of Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, who was yesterday fined for contempt of court, arrived here to-day and was in consultation regarding the case with James H. Pou and ex-Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, of North Carolina, who have been in Washington several days in connection with the recent receivership proceedings against the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. The three gentlemen called on Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States Supreme Court, but declined absolutely to say anything for publication regarding the matter to night, further than that up to this time no application had been made to any judge for any order in the case. They said that certain papers bearing on it had been prepared in Raleigh and were now on their way here. They are expected to-morrow. Governor Jarvis said no legal steps are contemplated until their arrival.

HOTEL GUEST SEVERELY BURNED.

Mr. A. S. Kemp, of Elizabethtown, in His Sleep Overturned Lamp on Bed.

Mr. A. S. Kemp, of Elizabethtown, a guest at the Bonitz Hotel, was severely burned this morning about 1:30 o'clock by the overturning of a lamp upon himself in room No. 22, where he had gone to sleep earlier in the night, leaving the lamp burning on a table near the bed. It is supposed that while tossing in his sleep, he turned the lamp over on the bed as the first he said he knew he was afire all over, his clothing and the bed having been saturated with the oil. Clerk W. A. Bonitz and other guests in the hotel heard the screams and rushed to the man's room, extinguishing the flames without the aid of the fire department. Mr. Kemp was severely, but perhaps not seriously burned about the right arm, chest and on the stomach. He was suffering great pain when taken to the hospital this morning at 2 o'clock, but was believed to be in no immediate danger. Household remedies were applied until the man could be gotten to medical aid. He walked to the patrol wagon unassisted and was hurried to the hospital. Mr. Kemp was resting comfortably at 3 o'clock this morning.

A GREAT BASEBALL GAME.

Local Team of Collegians Defeated Strong Nine from Fort Caswell—The Score Was Four to Two—Summary.

The fastest and cleanest article of the national sport seen on the local diamond since the days of professional ball here was the game yesterday afternoon between a team of collegians representing Wilmington and the crack nine from Fort Caswell. The result was in doubt until the last man was out, but when the smoke cleared away, the score board showed clean and bright, four for Wilmington and two for Caswell. The soldiers scored one in the second and one in the sixth, while the locals up to that time had nothing but goose eggs chalked up to their credit. The crowd was large and pining for "something doing" in behalf of the collegians. Their enthusiasm was destined to remain not much longer in cold storage, for in the seventh Wilson, the crack slab artist for the locals, had found his way to second and Fletcher, of the Oak Ridge team, doubled 'em up out to center, scoring Wilson. Wescott, of Oak Ridge, then came up and rapped out another double, scoring Fletcher. The score was tied to the dismay of the soldiers, who were unable to do anything in their half of the same spasm. Their discomfiture plainly came to the surface very soon when the collegians were allowed to get Smith and Norwood Orrell over the pan on a wild throw from pitcher to second.

Wilson's magnificent pitching throughout the game won the admiration of all. It is stated to his credit that he fanned thirteen men and allowed but two hits. The team work of Caswell was fine and they proved themselves clever, manly fellows, whom Wilmington will be delighted to meet again. Their short stop was one of the best seen here. Mr. E. W. Pace umpired satisfactorily and Mr. Paul Cantwell was the official scorer. The class of ball dished up yesterday deserves a good public patronage and the series to follow the game yesterday will doubtless receive it.

The teams lined up in the following order:

WILMINGTON.		CASWELL.

LEAST BIT TOO FAST.

A. & N. C. Remains in Hands of Receivers Until Hearing in Court To-day.

THE PEEBLES CONTEMPT CASE

Will Not Reach the Supreme Court Until This Morning—Judge Leaves for the Scene—Supreme Court Decisions—Raleigh News.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—There was an unexpected hold-up in the transfer to the regular officers of the A. & N. C. Railroad from Receivers Meares and McBee, who took charge yesterday, under the supersedeas order of Chief Justice Fuller for the officers to file with Judge Purnell a $25,000 bond and retain the management until the hearing of the Cuyler complaint. The bond was made up and certified before the clerk of Judge Purnell's court this morning, but when counsel walked into the court and tendered it, Col. Argo, of counsel for the receivers, gave notice that they desired to be heard in opposition to the acceptance of the bond. Finally, the hearing was set for 9 o'clock to-morrow, when they will contend among other things that the receivers having already taken charge when the order was served, it cannot be effective, having no retrospective force. Counsel on both sides are preparing for a battle royal to morrow. In the meantime the receivers are running the "Old Mullet," as the road is known. There are many proposals now to change the name of the road to the "Eel," so hard does it seem for any regime to hold it of late.

It was decided to-night that the Supreme Court will hear the Kerr, Carrol and Southerland writs of habeas corpus in the Judge Peebles contempt proceedings at 3 o'clock to morrow instead of 11 o'clock. Many witnesses are to arrive to night and to-morrow, but the plan to-night is to confine the hearing to legal argument, reviewing the whole contempt proceedings by Judge Peebles against the Robeson county lawyers, out of which the habeas corpus writs grew through the ordering of the three men to jail by the judge for making affidavit that charged him with drunkenness.

The Supreme Court rendered these opinions to day: Vann vs. Edwards, from Hertford, new trial; Creech vs. Cotton Mills, from New Hanover, new trial; McNeill vs. Durham & Charlotte R R. Company, from Moore, petition to rehear allowed, judgment being affirmed; Walker vs. C. C. R.R. Company, from Mecklenburg, affirmed.

(By Associated Press.)

RALEIGH, N. C., June 1.—The supersedeas order of Chief Justice Fuller which returns to the State authorities the A. & N. C. railroad, over which a receivership had been granted by Federal Judge Purnell, was presented in the Federal Court this morning, and it is ordered that the bond of $25,000 be approved by Judge Purnell. He declined to consider the matter till to-morrow morning, a motion to this effect being made by counsel of J. P. Cuyler, of New York, the complainant. The justification on the bond is $161,000.

WEDDED IN PINK AND WHITE.

Miss Amy Bradley Merritt Bride of Mr. John Scarborough McEachern.

In the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Merritt, No. 406 Walnut street, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, Miss Amy Bradley Merritt became the bride of Mr. John Scarborough McEachern in a beautiful service performed by the Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of Grace M. E. church. The parlors of the home were very attractively decorated with a festooning of Southern smilax, while palms and other potted plants with cut flowers contributed to a very charming effect, the prevailing colors having been pink and white.

The bride wore a becoming costume of white chiffon trimmed with Mechlin lace and carried a bouquet of white carnations and asparagus ferns. The groom was attired in the conventional black with boutonniere of white carnations.

Following the cermony, Mr. and Mrs. McEachern received the hasty congratulations of friends and at 6:50 o'clock, accompanied by a number of friends to the station, they departed for a bridal tour to the St. Louis Exposition, having been liberally showered with rice and good wishes for a pleasant journey. Returning to Wilmington in two weeks they will be at home on South Front street. The bride is much loved and admired in a wide circle of friends here, while the groom is one of Wilmington's most enterprising young business men. The popularity of the couple is attested by the unusually large number of very handsome wedding gifts which they received.

Returned from the Funeral.

Rev. Geo. B. Webster, Mr. A. M. Wallace and wife and Mr. W. C. Wallace returned yesterday from Clarkton, where at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon they were present at the funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Wallace, who died at the home of her daughter there Monday morning. The services were from the Clarkton Presbyterian Church, and were by Rev. Mr. Webster, of Wilmington; Rev. A. McFadyen, of Clarkton, and Rev. W. H. Brown, of Elizabethtown. Capt. Charles Kennedy, of Fayetteville, a brother of the deceased, also attended the funeral and came to Wilmington yesterday to visit the family of his son, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kennedy.

The thirty-sixth annual commencement of St. Thomas' Catholic School took place yesterday evening and was attended by a very large audience. Negro Women Clash.

Lizzie Lucas, alias "Sis" Lucas, a notorious denizen of Dross Neck, appeared in Justice Fowler's court yesterday a badly disfigured individual. She had been in personal encounter with one Julia Moore, colored, and in consequence thereof, her under lip had been badly lacerated, the woman declaring that she had been to the hospital where it was found necessary to amputate a part of the protruding member. She was charged with forcible trespass upon the premises of the Moore woman, who testified that "Sis" had come into her house and when ordered out, she broke two lamps over her head and "deluged the floor with oil." A pitched battle ensued in which there was weeping wailing and gnashing of teeth, if the Lucas woman did not belie the occurrence. It was adjudged that the Moore woman was acting in defence of her property and Lucas was sent to jail in default of $50, bond for the Superior Court.

THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Yesterday's Sessions Were Engaged With Trial of Cases of No General Interest.

WORK OF THE GRAND JURY.

May be Unable to Make Return Upon Bill for Murder—Judge Allen Speaks of a Misconception of Law Regarding Authority of Officers.

Yesterday was another dull day in the Superior Court and few cases of general interest were tried. It now seems that owing to the inability to get one material witness, it may be impossible for the grand jury to act at all upon the bill of indictment charging the Nelsons, white, and Janie Williams, colored, with implication in the murder of Chas. Fisher, the old colored man found dead in the house of the Williams woman about four weeks ago. The cases on the docket for trial will no doubt be completed before the end of the week, though the time left will be so short as to admit of the trial of no civil matters of consequence.

Court met at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning and of the 15 talesmen ordered for the day the sheriff returned all except Robt. J. King and C. C. Parker, Jr., who were not found. Messrs. Henry C. Bear, W. D. Sumlin, L. A. Bilbro, Jno. T. Runge and Edward Brown were excused by the court. The trial of Mary Crawford, charged with nuisance, was completed upon the opening of court and defendant was sentenced to 30 days with leave to the commissioners to hire out. The following additional cases were tried during the day:

Hosea Davis and Jim Marine, false pretence in passing Confederate bill; Marine called and failed; instanter capias issued.

Mary Alice Jones, indecent exposure; verdict guilty; 30 days on the roads.

Thos. S. Gorden and Jim Anderson, larceny of beer bottles from Cape Fear Club; verdict of not guilty as to Gorden; Anderson sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

Frank James, resisting officers M. E. Guy and G. S. Phillips; verdict guilty and sentenced to 12 months on the roads.

Frank Jones, assault with deadly weapon; 6 months on roads; carrying concealed weapons, six months on roads. Jones engaged in a pistol duel in the streets with another young negro called "Bacchus," who escaped to parts unknown.

In passing sentence on the negro James, charged with resisting officers Guy and Phillips, Judge Allen said there seemed to have gone abroad in Wilmington an impression that an officer has no right to make an arrest without a warrant; that while such is ordinarily the case, an officer certainly has the right and it becomes his duty to make an arrest when the offence is committed in his presence or hearing. Judge Allen said he desired that statement made public as officenders were likely to suffer by acting under the misconception of the law.

The following talesmen were ordered summoned for to-day: D. Hanna, J. P. Russell, J. B. J. Sandlin, J. C. Helms, J. W. Creasy, J. A. McNorton, G. H. Rogers, James S. Westbrook, J. R. Kennedy, J. C. Haar, Madison M. Moore, H. L. Reich, H. D. Stanland, C. E. Gordon and Jno. R. Mahoney.

YESTERDAY'S CONVENTIONS.

Columbus Solid for Stedman—Also Leads in Wilson—Surry Primaries.

[Special Star Telegrams.]

WHITEVILLE, N. C., June 1.—The Columbus county convention was held here to-day at noon. The old soldiers turned out en masse and Columbus will send a solid delegation for Stedman to the State Convention. There was no instruction for Congress or Lieutenant Governor. Columbus has 15 votes in the State convention.

WHITEVILLE, N. C., June 1.—The Democratic County Convention was held here to-day, Hon. B. F. Aycock presiding. A large and intelligent crowd was present, every township being well represented. Although there was no instruction, a solid Stedman delegation was chosen to the State Convention, not a dissenting voice being raised. The convention was perfectly harmonious, and much enthusiasm prevailed whenever Major Stedman's name was mentioned. Columbus has but one regret, that we cannot cast fifty instead of fifteen votes for our next Governor, Major Charles M. Stedman.

WILSON COUNTY.

WILSON, N. C., June 1.—The Wilson county convention was held here to day noon. Wilson's 19 votes in the State Convention will be divided between the candidates for Governor as follows: Stedman, ten; Glenn, seven, and Turner, two.

FROM SURRY COUNTY.

Referring to the primaries held in Surry county last Saturday the Mt. Airy Leader of this week says:

John R. Paddison proposed that a vote be taken to ascertain the relative strength of the various candidates for Governor, and the vote resulted in Glenn receiving 43, Stedman 29, and Turner 1. The township will cast 21 votes in the county convention, and this gives Stedman 8½.

"This was a surprise to many, as the Glenn forces have been claiming everything in sight, but now the Stedman people think they will secure a majority of the delegates from the county."

— Mr. M. A. Fryer and wife, of Whiteville, were guests at The Orton yesterday.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 2.

CLEVELAND, THE PIVOTAL STATES AND THE STAR DO.

Our esteemed and valued contemporary the Raleigh Post says:

"It is not believed that anybody in North Carolina will seriously contend for an instructed delegation to the St. Louis convention."

Well we should smile if there was not a serious reason why such a contention should be made. We have too much respect for logic to go in the face of the situation that now confronts us.

As we have often mentioned, it is impossible for the Democrats to slip the White House from under Theodore Roosevelt without carrying the doubtful or pivotal States. Those pivotal States, with the exception of New Jersey, have instructed for Judge Parker, while as a matter of fact the New Jersey delegation is for him and the greatest citizen in that State, in the person of ex-President Cleveland, has pronounced Parker the most available candidate. These pivotal States have tried to "show us the way to go home," the Democracy of North Carolina has been convinced that they have named the right man, and if these presents do not constitute the most palpable reason why North Carolina should instruct for the Sage of Esopus, then we are in the market to buy a gold brick.

All over the country great significance is being attached to an interview given out by Mr. Cleveland a few days ago. After having had time to look over the situation, the ex-President says he is convinced that Judge Parker should be made the nominee, among other logical reasons being his conviction that "Judge Parker is a man for whom every Democrat and the great body of independent voters can vote unreservedly." Mr. Cleveland seems, however, to find greater satisfaction in his observation that "Whether Judge Parker shall be nominated or not, his candidacy has been a blessing to the party, for the energetic exploitation of his name during the last year has made certain the Democracy's return to fundamental principles."

Judge Parker's name has been a tower of strength to the Democracy and by means of his candidacy a majority of the Democratic State conventions have demonstrated that they have pulled off the side track onto the main line. It is no "reorganization" that the Democracy is now engaged in, but a house cleaning in which the scraps of exploded falacies are being swept off the ground floor. What has already been accomplished scores a victory for Democracy whether it elects its candidate this time or not.

Speaking of the platform to be adopted at St. Louis, Mr Cleveland said in his recent interview:

"The two points of attack in a political campaign are the candidate and the platform. If the candidate be vulnerable, not so much attention will be paid to the platform. But when, as in the case of Judge Parker, the candidate cannot be assailed upon any supportable ground, the platform is sure to be studied minutely and critically by our opponents, and must be so constructed as to be wholly free from weak points."

It is an extremely fortunate thing for the great Democratic party that it has within its ranks a man of the irreproachable character, clean record, and marked ability of Judge Parker. The Republicans have not been able to level a single shaft at him, and every characteristic of the eminent New York jurist marks him as the one American to whom the Republic can look for a sound reestablishment of the wise principles upon which the founders of this government builded as a guarantee of freedom, independence and safety.

With regard to the platform upon which Judge Parker is to stand, we will warrant that it is already in the draft and that it will be one upon which the Party can go with confidence to the American people. John Sharpe Williams, Arthur Pue Gorman and other level-headed leaders outlined the Democratic policy in Congress, and the national platform will ring clear upon the issues which are to be laid down at St. Louis. However, Mr. Cleveland has this suggestion to make upon it:

"It should be short, treating only of the strongest points at issue, and I am pleased to note that this opinion, as evidenced by the expressions from Democratic leaders and newspapers, is growing. There is particular reason why this platform should be short and strong and thoroughly bottomed upon the fundamental Democratic doctrines, if Judge Parker is to be the party candidate."

The fundamentalists (not "reorganizers") have swept the field and with Parker on a platform that will be four-square on the issues, there will be a tremendous eruption of enthusiasm when the St. Louis convention finishes up its work.

Yes, the Hon. Grover Cleveland, the pivotal States, and the STAR "seriously contend" that instructions to vote for Parker meet the logic of the situation. Some others will see it that way after it is all over. We hope the Washington Post does not state it earnestly in this quip:

Mr. Cleveland declares that Judge Parker is the logical candidate for the Presidency, but there are some symptoms indicating that the Democrats have no passion for logic.

In the interview to which we refer Mr. Cleveland said:

I have believed for some months, and I believe now, that Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, will be the nominee of the national Democratic convention for the presidential office.

Cleveland has got a good eye. He knows logic when he sees it.

CAN KEEP SILENCE WITH IMPUNITY.

A man who can afford to keep silent and is allowed to keep silent is an extraordinary man. Most men would have to hide in a bombproof, but Judge Parker can sit on the stile at Esopus and doesn't have to talk, for he has nothing vulnerable in his character and no unquestionable acts, private or political, that require him to do any talking to explain something in his past.

The irreproachable Parker is the man for whom the country has been looking. This is the first instance that ever came under our observation that there is nothing assailable in a candidate's life.

Judge Parker can keep silence with impunity.

When hauled up in court to plead to the indictment that he had also eaten of the forbidden fruit, Adam straightway turned State's evidence. Eve became the principal defendant in the action, but Adam had to work out her sentence by "making bread with the sweat of his brow." Every woman in the land is prepared to believe that Adam got his just deserts because he went against his wife in the hour of her trial. Be it so that Adam made his excuse, but it didn't work any more than those of his sons who stay out late and invariably get caught in the midst of their prevarications.

We ought to have differential laws and sentences for people who steal from the government or State. A thief who steals from an individual ought to be punished, but not so severely as the one who steals from all the people in a bunch.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— Edison began to experiment with incandescent electric lamps in 1877. In 1879 it was virtually perfected; to-day there are at least 250,000,000 lamps installed in this country.

—— The recent lynching of a negro at Seaboard, N. C., by one of his own race provides a nut that some of our Northern friends will find it difficult to crack.—Florida Times-Union.

—— It appears now that Mr. Hitt, who agreed to accept the vice presidential nomination, may have to fight for it against some of the statesmen who insist that they do not want it.—Washington Post.

—— The national conventions will be held this year in the following order: Republican, at Chicago, on June 21; People's party, at Springfield, July 4; Democratic, at St. Louis July 6; Prohibition, Indianapolis, July 29. There is some talk of changing the date of the People's party convention until after the Democratic convention to see if anything happens there to the advantage of the Populists.

—— Republican leaders are plainly worried over the dullness of business. They have been telling the people that the revival of business was due to the election of a Republican President; that business has increased in prosperity on account of Republican Congresses, and that the only way to retain prosperity is to keep the same party in power. Now, it is becoming only too plain that two years of financial liquidation has been followed by dullness in general business; men are dropped from employment, wages are reduced, factories are shutting down, and what are the Republicans to say to this?—Philadelphia Record.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, June 1.—After a steady opening with first prices, five points higher to two points lower in response to cables, the cotton market to-day broke sharply and ruled generally weak during the entire session, closing within a point or two of the bottom and barely steady at a decline of twelve to fifty-three points. The opening steadiness was confined chiefly to the old crop positions and restricted moderate covering by shorts, who feared that the steadier cables and the better demand for spot cotton in the English market might start a reaction after the recent severe decline. A couple of private crop reports were also in circulation showing the condition to be around 79 per cent. with an increase of acreage ranging from 7 to 8 per cent. This condition was somewhat lower than the trade had been expecting and possibly helped in the initial firmness. This, however, was of very short duration. The weather over the South was generally favorable, there was no indication of bull support or of a renewal of spot demand, and shortly after the opening a raid by the Wall street bear interests following reports that New Orleans was selling, depressed prices sufficiently to catch stop loss orders, under which July broke to 12.18. At this level covering steadied the market momentarily, and there was a recovery of about ten points, but the market showed no improvement in point of undertone and readily yielded to another wave of bear pressure in the afternoon which drove July through the 12c mark, with that position selling as low as 11.94, or a net decline of fifty-five points. July closed on last Friday at 12.80 and the low point of to-day, therefore, meant a loss of about eighty-six points in the two trading days. Trading was fairly active at the decline and there was naturally more or less excitement as prices worked lower, while several sensational stories were set afloat as to speculative conditions. Sales estimated at 400,000 bales.

BLOCK SIGNAL SERVICE

The greatest railroad companies of the country employ the best engineers and most careful trainmen. Yet they spend thousands of dollars in equipping their roads with the block signal system so that they can be absolutely sure of the best service and of the public safety. That is just the principle that obtains in our prescription department. We double every check RX that goes over our counter. Then, too, we employ competent men to prepare prescriptions, but we don't stop there. The man's work is checked and verified before the medicine leaves the store.

It is quite reasonable to expect good medicine from Ahrens'. Active demand keeps the stock fresh and again the active demand warrants us in carrying a large variety of goods so that every demand can be met. And still again, the active demand brings us to a reiteration of our motto, "Quick sales and small profits." Send the prescription to Ahrens'

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Tom Starnes, a farmer living near Alton, Union county, fell into a forty-foot well Saturday evening and broke his thigh and received a severe wound on the scalp. It is not thought that the wounds will prove fatal.

— Cherokee Scout: The court house gong is used for Murphy's curfew. Marshal Findley rings it every night at 7 o'clock as a warning for children under 16 to get off the streets.

— Mr. J. A. Odell, of Greensboro, makes a gift of $5,000 to Greensboro Female College rebuilding and endowment fund. The gift follows the one of $10,000 made by Mr. B. N. Duke, of Durham, two weeks ago. Besides these two gifts, a fund amounting to $15,000 has been raised for the college, and preparations were made last week to proceed to making brick to be used in rebuilding the institution with a view to opening it for the Fall term by September 15th.

— Charlotte News: The Piedmont Clothing Manufacturing Company has just landed the largest order that has ever been given a Southern clothing factory. The order amounts to $30,000, and a large number of clothing factories were after it. Charlotte now ranks with the foremost cities in the country in the manufacture of clothing, and especially men's trousers. The large order taken by the Piedmont Clothing Manufacturing Company is just another evidence of the importance of Charlotte as a wholesale market. With better freight rates and a little more push Charlotte would soon be second to no city in the South as a wholesale trading point.

— Gastonia Gazette: It was at Dallas court Tuesday. An occupant of the bar, reading the Charlotte Observer of that morning, was posting to his mental ledger the entries on the editoral page. A chunky hand from the man in the next chair moved over into the reader's field of vision and swept an index finger down the first column. "That," whispered the owner of the hand, with a grim sorrow that chuckled at itself, "shakes my confidence in government ownership." The man who spoke was Major W. A. Guthrie, of pleasant memory and delectable presence, and the editorial was about that railroad report down at Raleigh.

— Charlotte Observer, May 30: This is the leading editorial in the New York Sun, of Saturday, and it was double-leaded: "It is a noteworthy circumstance that—barring only Grover Cleveland, whom many Democrats persist in regarding as the man who could surely beat Roosevelt—the name now most frequently mentioned North, East, West and South with the accent of hope, is that of the young mayor of New York city." The young mayor of New York has a right creditable little presidential boom. Clearly the Sun, which is opposed to both Roosevelt and Parker, is for him. So is Mr. Chas. F. Murphy, the Tammany leader. It will do to keep an eye on Mayor McClellan.

— Charlotte News: There is a mocking bird that sits and sings in a bright gilded cage that hangs on the front porch of the home of Mr. A. W. Banks, on North McDowell street. She snatches bars from every modern song that she hears and sings them in endless and perpetual rythm from the time that she bestirs herself in the early morning until the cage is hung on the inside for the night. The bird is a modern one and will cackle madly when any one hums a song that has come down with the ages. Her favorite tunes are "Come Home Bill Bailey," and "In the Good Old Summer Time." These she sings endlessly, only changing occasionally to some other ditty or bar from a song that has struck her fancy to a slight degree.

Capt. S. S. Carter died at noon on Sunday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. D. L. Blue, at Clarkton. He had lingered for two days after an attack of paralysis. Captain Carter had been in feeble health, for several months. He was 70 years of age, and his bereavement in the loss of his wife, three weeks ago, hastened his end. Capt. Carter was a Confederate veteran, and lost his arm at the battle of Kinston. Six children survive him: Mr. H. L. Carter, of Charlotte; W. L. and H. L. Carter, of New York city; Mrs. C. H. Clark, and Mrs. D. L. Blue, of Clarkton, and Mr. J. E. Carter of Polkton. About 30 years ago Capt. Clark was a member of the police force of Charlotte. He afterwards became connected with the Seaboard Air Line Railway and acted as agent at Clarkton up to some time ago, when he became too infirm to work.

— Charlotte Observer, May 30: There was a departure in the Recorder's Court this morning, when a well dressed, handsome white woman stood up before the bar of the justice and pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying concealed weapons. She gave a bond of $50, which the recorder required for her appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, and shook the dust of the court room from her dress, being craned at in the meantime by a court room full of all ages and varieties of men who had gathered in expectation of something sensational at the trial. The woman, Meliva Jones, as the warrant reads, dropped a bright new pistol from her dress while taking a ride on the merry-go round, a few nights ago. A special policeman, detailed at the machine, saw the gleaming weapon drop to the ground and at once arrested the owner.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience Mrs. S. H. Newson, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

— Fayetteville Observer: A handsome little folder, issued by the Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce, has come from the press, and is now ready for distribution abroad. The booklet bristles with facts, and is punctured with interesting figures—all set down plainly and colorlessly without flourish. But these facts and figures make a splendid exhibit for Fayetteville and its tributary section; and, placed in the hands of prospective investors, cannot fail to produce their effect.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years, and doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere, —seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY MORNING JUNE 2.

GEORGIA STATE CONVENTION.

Resolutions Adopted Instructing Delegation to St. Louis to Vote as a Unit for Judge Parker's Nomination.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ATLANTA, GA., June 1.—After a red-hot fight over the question as to whether the word "request," or "instruct" should be used in resolutions favoring the nomination for president of Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, those favoring instructions won and the State Democratic convention at a late hour this afternoon adopted the following resolutions by a vote of 166½ to 157½, which was then made unanimous by the convention:

"WHEREAS, We believe that Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, is the choice of an overwhelming majority of the Democracy of this State as the Democratic nominee for President, and whereas, it is the duty of this convention to give force and expression to its wishes;

"Resolved, That the delegates from Georgia to the National Convention to be held in St. Louis, be, and are hereby instructed to cast the vote of this State for Judge Alton B. Parker as the nominee of the Democratic party for president so long as in the opinion of a majority of the delegates there is a reasonable probability of his nomination, and that said delegates shall vote as a unit on all questions as a majority may determine."

The resolutions as reported to the convention by the platform and resolutions committee were identical with those adopted with the exception that the word "request" was used in place of "instruct."

It was on motion to strike out "request" and substitute "instruct" that the only bitter fight of the convention was witnessed.

GREAT RACE AT EPSOM.

The Derby Stakes Won by Rothschild's St. Amant—Edmond Blanc's Heavy Losses.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

LONDON, June 1.—The race for the Derby stakes (of 6,500 sovereigns, about one mile and a half), at Epsom to-day, was won by Leopold de Rothchild's St. Amant. Eight horses started. The race was won in two minutes and forty-five seconds.

St. Amant led all the way and led by three lengths. Gouvernant, a French horse, owned by M. Edmund Blanc and the favorite was not placed.

The victory of St. Amant was exceedingly popular, especially as it was thought that Gouvernant was a certain winner. The scene when M. de Rothschild led in his horse was remarkable. King Edward, who was present, was the first to congratulate his old friend, while cheers resounded all over the course.

A big contingent of Frenchmen were present and their disappointment was keen; they regarded Edmond Blanc's colt as certain to repeat Gladiateur's performance. It is said that M. Blanc, who made his fortune out of the Casino at Monte Carlo and paid a record price, $196,875, for Gouvernant's sire, Flying Fox, stood to win in the neighborhood of $350,000 in bets on Gouvernant.

NEBRASKA'S CONVENTION.

W. J. Bryan to Lead Delegation to St. Louis. Kansas City Platform Reaffirmed. Delegation Uninstructed.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

OMAHA, NEB., June 1.—The Democratic State Convention to-day unanimously selected W. J. Bryan to head the delegation to the national gathering at St. Louis, and adopted a platform which reaffirms the Kansas City platform of 1900, and places before the public Mr. Bryan's views of what should be embodied in the platform of the coming national convention. Mr. Bryan was himself chairman of the committee on resolutions and wrote the platform. He had associated with him men who have been his most loyal supporters. There was no opposition to the adoption of the platform as read, although one delegate attempted to secure the adoption of an additional plank pledging Nebraska Democracy to support the nominee of the St. Louis convention regardless of whom they might be. He was ruled out of order, however, after reading his resolution.

The delegation is uninstructed, but is pledged to the unit rule. A resolution expressing confidence in Mr. Bryan and commending his "splendid efforts to prevent the national organization from falling under the baneful control of the enemies of the real Democracy" was unanimously adopted.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR THE JAPANESE.

Reported That Gen. Kuroki Has Completely Defeated Gen. Kuropatkin's Forces.

LONDON RUMOR OF MEDIATION

Finds No Confirmation in Diplomatic Circles—Japanese Minister's Views—No Immediate Attack Upon Port Arthur Likely to be Made.

By Cable to the Morning Star

LONDON, June 1.—A special dispatch from Rome says a telegram has been received there from Tokio reporting that General Kuroki has completely defeated General Kuropatkin's forces near Simatsi.

All the Russian positions east of Hai Cheng have been abandoned according to the telegram; several guns have been taken, and whole squadrons of Cossacks captured.

It is possible the news received in Rome referred to the fighting reported in last night's Associated Press dispatch from Lalo Yang and St. Petersburg. These did not indicate a general engagement, but showed that a series of sharp engagements had taken place east of Simatsi.

Rumors of Mediation.

LONDON, June 1.—Rumors of mediation in the Russo-Japanese war caused a rise of ¼ per cent. in consols and a general upward tendency on the London market this afternoon, but the rumors have found no confirmation in diplomatic quarters.

The Foreign Office characterizes the report that mediation is pending in the immediate future as "Rubbish."

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, says: "Not a whisper of mediation has reached me. For us to stay our hands at this moment would be senseless folly. Russia appears to be in a serious dilemma. She has not enough men in the field to cope with our various points of attack. If she sends in the reinforcements that General Kuropatkin so much needs she cannot feed them.

"I do not credit the rumor in Rome of General Kuropatkin's defeat. Although during the next few days news of it may come at any moment. It seems he intends to fight at Liao Yang. I believe he has decided to do this not so much from a military point of view as because of the pressure from the court and political circles at St. Petersburg.

"Another month is likely to elapse before any determined assault can be made on Port Arthur.

Russian Reports.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 1, 6:40 P. M.—The war office has received reports showing that the Japanese are falling back from Siu Yen, southwest of Feng Wang Cheng. Both movements are taken to indicate the continued desire of the Japanese to secrete their operations before Port Arthur. There is not the slightest foundation for the report that Russians will abandon their positions east of Hai Cheng. General Samsonoff, who is operating south of Kai-Chou, is understood to have a strong force of troops and as likely to harass the Japanese outposts.

As regards the operations north of Feng Wang Cheng, the Cossacks have retired from Saimatsza with the additional loss of two officers and seven men wounded. Saimatsza is now held by a strong Japanese garrison.

Battleship Aground.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 1.—An unconfirmed report has reached here from Mukden that the Japanese battleship Fuji is aground on a reef off the Miao Tao Islands, between the Kwan Twun and Shan Tung promontories, where she is being guarded by torpedo boats.

A Cavalry Fight.

LIAO YANG, May 30, (Delayed in transmission.)—The Japanese lost 200 killed and a number of horses in the fight at Vagenfuchu to-day. The Russians opened fire at 8 in the morning and after two hours long range firing the Japanese under General Akkiama prepared to charge and crush the force which had been harassing them for twenty-one days. In the meantime they were approaching Vagenfuchu with a strong force of cavalry. It was a sight worth seeing when at the word of command the Russian squadron formed and rushed like a whirlwind across the terribly cut up country, clearing away all obstacles, the batteries at the same time trotting along the frightful roads. Having passed the railroad station the troops came under the fire of the Japanese machine guns, but withdrew without suffering much loss. The fourth and sixth companies of the Eighth Siberian Cossacks furiously charged the Japanese cavalry with lances, attacking both flanks. In a few minutes they literally cut the whole squadron into pieces. This was the first time lances were used, and they struck terror into the enemy. In som cases lances pierced the riders through and wounded their horses. Some of the lances could not be withdrawn from the bodies into which they had enterd. The Japanese, numbering four battalions of 300 men to a company and eight squadrons of cavalry attempted to advance, but the Russian batteries opened and soon the slope up which the enemy was advancing was covered with black spots and the enemy was forced to scatter and retire.

A Cossack who had lost his lance and sword wrenched a sword from a Japanese officer and cut off the officer's head. The Cossacks picked up boots which had been taken off by the Japanese in order to facilitate their flight and flourished them on their lances as trophies.

The Japanese used the Boer trick of displaying dummies, but the Cossacks did not waste a shot on them.

Gen. Samsonoff highly praised the services of the Russians.

Pressure Upon Kuropatkin.

LONDON, June 2.—No confirmation has yet been received of the reported heavy fighting near Port Arthur or with Kuropatkin's army, although the latter is not regarded as improbable. Rumors persist that court influence at St. Petersburg is being actively exercised to induce General Kuropatkin to assume the offensive in an endeavor by a victory to retrieve the Russian military reputation.

The Daily Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says:

"A recent council of war decided that Kuropatkin should risk an engagement. The Emperor ratified this judgment, even going so far as to authorize the dispatch of troops from the German frontier to the Far East on the ground that as Germany was benevolent she might be trusted safely. All hopes are centered now in Kuropatkin, who will make desperate efforts to save Port Arthur."

Against these statements must be placed the official contradiction communicated to the Associated Press and already cabled that General Kuropatkin would move southward.

STRIKE TROUBLE IN AN OHIO TOWN.

Growing Out of Importation of Negroes to Take Places of Striking Furnace Men.

BOTH SIDES HEAVILY ARMED.

One Man Killed and a Bloody Outbreak Threatened — Four Companies of State Troops Sent to Scene of the Disturbance.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, June 1.—Four companies of militia were to-day ordered to proceed to Hanging Rock, near Ironton, on the Ohio river. With Colonel A. C. Thompson in command, the companies left at once for Hanging Rock on a special train.

The sheriff of Lawrence county to-day wired the attorney general making a request for military aid at Hanging Rock. The sheriff asked that an entire battalion be sent forthwith, as there was every indication that there might be a bloody outbreak at any moment.

The trouble grows out of the importation of negroes from Virginia to take the places of striking furnace men. One man was killed last night.

The arrest of James Fuller, a young striker suspected of having shot Superintendent Wm. Jeffries, of the Hanging Rock Company, was what brought the ill feeling between strikers and strike-breakers to such a point to-day that troops were called for by Sheriff Payne.

The strikers to-day began parading the streets carrying rifles and threatening the non-union men wherever found, especially the colored men who had taken the place of strikers in the furnaces. The strike-breakers were also armed.

For some days both sides have been heavily armed. There were several collisions last Sunday, in one of which Albert Sperry was seriously hurt. On Monday night an attack was made on an old church where a party of non-unionists had taken refuge and two hundred shots were exchanged. Later Superintendent Jeffries of the Hamilton furnace was shot, but not seriously hurt.

There have been few casualities so far considering the extent of the shooting.

Within five hours after the order for troops to proceed to Hanging Rock was issued four companies of militia from Ironton, Portsmouth, Gallipolis and Manchester were on the scene and the strikers had been dispersed.

Colonel Thompson, in command of the troops, reported to-night that perfect order had been restored and that there was no fear of further trouble to-night.

WARM WIRELETS.

At Fairfax C. H., Va., yesterday a monument commemorating the death of John Quincy Marr, the first Confederate soldier killed in actual conflict, was unveiled with appropriate ceremonies.

Samuel R. Callaway, president of the American Locomotive Company, and former president of the New York Central railroad, died in New York yesterday, after an operation for mastoiditis. He was 54 years of age.

The American press humorists, at St. Louis before adjourning will probably take action toward the creation of a fund to erect a monument over the grave of "Bill" Nye. Such a movement has been started by the Sunshine Society of Asheville, N. C., where Nye died.

The submarine torpedo boat Fulton was given a trial yesterday at Newport, R. I., in the presence of a naval board which observed her movements from the U. S. S. Hist. The Fultou was given a speed run on the surface and under water and was put through diving manceuvres and torpedo firing.

Judge Peebles at Raleigh.

Judge Peebles left yesterday morning for his home in Northampton county, via Raleigh. At Raleigh he signified his purpose to stop a day or two and attend the proceedings before the Supreme Court in relation to the petition for a writ of habeas corpus by the three men whom he has sentenced to jail for contempt.

Dance at the Beach.

Complimentary to members of her advanced dancing class and their friends, Miss Leonora Cantwell will give a delightful german to-night at Wrightsville Beach. The party will go the beach on the early evening cars and return on a late car at night.

Crossing the Feet.

Physical culturists say that the practice of sitting with the legs or even the feet crossed is a bad one and has more to do with cold feet than most persons imagine. It has this result principally through impeding the circulation of the blood in the leg that is crossed over the other. The femoral veins are cramped, with the consequence that the blood is dammed back into the feet and above the knee, inducing as well as cold feet a varicose condition in the veins of the calves. Another reason why the habit should be discouraged is the fact that on general physiological principles it is healthier to sit squarely with both feet resting upon the door, whereas with the legs crossed the weight of the body is thrown almost wholly to one side or the other.

A Child's Logic.

A story illustrating the severe logic of some juvenile minds is told by the mother of the four-year-old girl involved. One day this observant miss saw a lame man on the street and asked her mother what made him walk so queer. The mother told her it was because one leg was shorter than the other.

"Well," she said, "there is a girl around the corner who is that way."

After a few minutes' meditation she remarked:

"Mamma, wasn't it funny that God didn't give the two long legs to the man and the two short ones to the girl?"—Baltimore Sun.

ROCK QUARRY IN OPERATION AGAIN.

Compromise of Difference Between Attorneys Effected Yesterday—Appeal.

As foreshadowed in these columns yesterday, a compromise of the differences of the parties to the rock quarry controversy has been effected and the plant is now in operation by Mr. Dock for the city. Just what is the basis of the settlement neither side will divulge, but counsel for each say they are well satisfied with the turn of affairs. Mr. Dock, the contractor for the operation of the quarry, put a force of men to work yesterday afternoon pumping out the shafts and it is presumed that street material will be forthcoming in a day or two. The public will be exceedingly glad of this information.

The appeal of the case by the city to the Supreme Court will continue without reference to the settlement of the matter yesterday and upon a decision in the same will depend to whom the $900 now held in trust by the city will be paid. The public is exceedingly tired of the controversy and will be glad when the matter is settled once for all.

A PRETTY EVENING WEDDING.

At the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs W. G. Fowler, No. 224 South Front street, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives, Miss Margaret R. Platt, daughter of the late Samuel Platt, of Wilmington, was happily united in marriage to Mr. James H. Mallard, a popular travelling man, who makes his home here. The service was by the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, and was very impressive. Mr. and Mrs. Mallard left on the northbound A. C. L. train for a bridal tour to Richmond, Va., and the St. Louis Exposition, after which they will be at home in this city.
